

KITCHEN SHOWROOMS

From showroom-lined Wigmore Street to the classic interiors hunting ground of King's Road and cool Clerkenwell, London is brimming with inspirational kitchen design studios, all featuring the latest furniture, exotic materials and innovative appliances

WIGMORE STREET & SURROUNDING AREA

BULTHAUP

37 Wigmore Street, W1U 1PP,
020 7495 3663,

bulthaup-mayfair.co.uk.

Enjoying a commanding corner position where Wigmore meets Welbeck Street, this is the first of three flagship London showrooms owned by the Bulthaup group (the others are located in Clerkenwell and Holland Park). Bulthaup may only make three kitchen collections – b1, b2 and b3 – but the brand is unsurpassed in both quality and purity of design.

CHARLIE KINGHAM

53 Blandford Street, W1U 7HL,
020 7935 2255,

charliekingham.co.uk.

Positioned opposite Marylebone's Chiltern Firehouse, this fabulous showroom is all about high-end bespoke cabinetry. Distinctive designs include a worktop made from reclaimed school science benches, an island with a beautiful copper sink and a custom-made larder. There are no set ranges, although Shaker is the company's speciality, made using traditional joinery methods and skills.

DESIGNSPACE LONDON

126 Wigmore Street, W1V 3RZ,
020 7487 5077,

designspacelondon.com.

Fans of Italian style flock to this flagship showroom on Wigmore Street, which is dedicated to Modulnova's products (the Battersea showroom is home to other Italian design companies, too). There are three architectural kitchen collections to admire, plus a modular shelving system, Library Unlimited, suitable for living spaces throughout the home.

CHARLIE KINGHAM

HALCYON INTERIORS

120 Wigmore Street, W1U 3LS,
020 7486 3080,

alnokitchens.co.uk.

Also known as The Alno Store, this Wigmore Street gem, set over two floors, features ten kitchen displays by high-end German brand Alno. Also head here to see Caesarstone's convincing new marble-look surfaces, and appliances by Gaggenau, Westin and Barazza.

NICHOLAS ANTHONY

44/48 Wigmore Street, W1U 2RY,
020 7935 0177,

nicholas-anthony.co.uk.

This seriously luxurious showroom, of a company that champions new materials and technology, boasts an industrial-chic vibe, complete with exposed architecture and ironwork. Demonstrating the flexibility and innovation of German brand SieMatic's kitchens, there are several open-plan arrangements on display, including a working kitchen, packed with Gaggenau appliances, where popular cooking classes are held most Sundays.

ROUNDHOUSE

11 Wigmore Street, W1U 1PE,
020 7297 6220,

roundhousedesign.com.

This open-plan showroom in a former music publishing house features impressive stained-glass windows, adorned with musical instruments. The kitchens on display are equally artistic and include finishes such as patinated silver, burnished bronze and a driftwood-style surface made from rough-sawn lime-washed oak. Each bespoke kitchen is handmade in Malvern, Worcestershire.

TOM HOWLEY

3 Wigmore Street, W1U 1AD,
020 7499 5145, tomhowley.co.uk.

One of the newest additions to Wigmore Street, Tom Howley's airy showroom is the place to see beautiful bespoke cabinetry with artisan touches, such as etched storage drawers, tailor-made chopping blocks and upholstered banquette seating. There is also a Neville Johnson concession in the basement.

WEST LONDON

BOFFI

254 Brompton Road, SW3 2AS,
020 7590 8910, boffiuk.com.

Home to a host of cutting-edge Italian kitchens, this is a must-visit for design professionals. The mainly windowless space has a moody atmosphere that is the perfect backdrop for minimalist collections by Piero Lissoni, Norbert Wangen and Luigi Massoni. Trained at Boffi's HQ in Italy, the design team offers excellent technical know-how.
